VOL CXXXI—75. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, MONDAY, MARCH 29, 1915. PRICE, 2 CENTS

GUNS ARE HEARD IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Russian Shells Falling Within 12 Miles of Sultan's Palace

ATTACK FROM THE AIR

Many Inhabitants Fleeing From City Into Interior as Muscovite War Ships Attack Forts.

London, March 29.—The roar of hostile guns is shaking Constantinople. Russian shells are falling within tweleve miles of the Sultan's palace. For the first time in history Islam's capital has been bombarded from the air.

Dispatches from Petrograd and Balkan points today report the Russian fleet again hurling shells against the Bosphorus defenses. The bombardment was resumed last evening. Russian aviators sped along the Bospohrus and dropped bombs upon Pera, the residential section of the Ottoman capital. Part of the population is reported to have fled to the interior in panic.

An official statement from Constantinople, delayed in transmission, reached here today. It was filed yesterday afternoon and dealt only with the morning operations.

"Early Sunday Russian warships shelled our guard ships at the Bosphorus at long range without doing any extensive damage," said the Turkish war office. "The bombardment lasted but a short time, and the enemy's squadron then steamed out of sight."

A semi-official statement from Petrograd today says:

"Further aerial reconnoissances show that our guns did considerable damage in Sunday morning's bombardment of the outer forts and batteries of the Bosphorous. On both sides of the strait our gunners scored hits. Our aviators have dropped bombs in the suburbs of Constantinople. Thea ction is continuing."

Constanza, March 29—A special courier arrived here today bringing news from Constantinople up to Wednesday afternoon. The city is calm and expectant and resigned to the inevitable. The government is preparing the inhabitants for the arsival of the allied fleet. With this end in view a proclamaton has been posted n varous parts of Pera and in the mosques of Stamboul, announcing that the warships of France and England may shortly arrive in the Bosphorus. The proclamation continues:

"It is simply the question of opening up the Dardanelles and Bosphorus to the free passage for foreign warships, which the sultan had hitherto refused, and has no political significance."

The population is urged to remain calm, and not to resort to any acts of violence, and is assured that after a stay of three or four weeks the allied fleet will sail away, being content with a simple naval demonstration.

The phrasing of the proclamation would almost make it appear that the forthcoming visit of the allied fleet is something in the nature of a friendly call, to which the Turkish government is looking forward with the keenest delight.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The German cruiser Breslau has been irreparably damaged by a mine in the Black Sea at the entrance to the Bosphorus. Her wireless installation has been transferred to the Hamidiej.

A dispatch from Chalons-Sur-Marne, France, says eleven thousand German dead have been taken from the trenches won by the French during twenty days of fighting in the Champagne country. The German losses in killed, in prisoners and in wounded are estimated by the French military authorities at 50,000. The German wastage, they say, has been 2 to 1 compared with the French losses, because the Germans would try to regain lost ground by counter attacks, repeated again and again with obstinate courage.

It now transpires that the famous submarine U-21, the officers of which were personally decorated with iron crosses by the Kaiser, has become part of the British navy. Sunk off the west coast somewhere near Fleetwood about the middle of February, the U-21 was raised, and taken into Barrow-in-Furness. She was but slightly damaged. Slight repairs were made and in a very short time the U-21 was again at sea, headed for her home waters, but manned by a British crew.

A German submarine was active to the south of Ireland yesterday. The submarine sunk one steamer, the Falaba, a British vessel of 3,001 tons. The crew escaped in the boats. The British steamer Dunedian, of 3,051 tons, which sailed from Newport News March 13, for Avonmouth, and the steamer Aquila also sent out distress signals that they were being chased by a submarine. All the steamers were in the same neighborhood. A submarine was seen off Cape Clear shortly after noon yesterday.

Mystery surrounds the death of Miss Margaret Mullan, 30 years old, whose body, bruised as if in a terrific struggle, was found yesterday in the yard in the rear of the residence of Lawrence E. Crabtree, a postoffice carrier of Cumberland, Md. Leroy Harden, who resides with his father, Jacob Harden, a carpenter, is being detained at the police station. Harden admits having been with Miss Mullan as late at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night. He did not see her after that, he declares.

Following the revelation that he had forged to notes the name of prominent educators, Rev Charles M. Aurand, D. D., regarded as one of the most promising Lutheran ministers in Central Pennsylvania, died under mysterious circumstances in Philadelphia Saturday night.

FEAST OF PASSOVER.

At sunset tonight Jews in all parts of the world will begin the celebration of the Passover, commemorating the deliverance of the children of Israel from Egyptian bondage, and the saving of their first born from destruction. Services will be held in the Washington street Synagogue at 6:15 this evening.

DEATH OF MRS. SIMMS.

Mrs. Margaret Simms, 73 years old, wife of George W. Simms, died at her home near Franconia, Fairfax county, yesterday morning. Mrs. Simms is survived by her husband and six children, Daniel, George, Charles, Norman and Samuel Simms and Mrs. Roseabel Rogers. Her funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock from Beulah Baptist Church.

THE LATE MRS. LEWIS.

The funeral of Mrs. Evelyn Courtney Lewis, who died in Baltimore Friday, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her nephew, Dr. Arthur Snowden, 920 King street. Services were conducted by the Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, and the Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Theological Seminary. The pallbearers were Laurence Stabler, Captain Albert Bryan, Henry Wattles, H. R. Burke, Samuel G. Brent and Arthur Herbert, Jr.

SUBMARINE HAS BEEN LOCATED

Attempts to Raise F-4 Sunk Last Week Off Honolulu Harbor

NO HOPES FOR CREW

Ill-Fated Boat Just Outside of Harbor About Three Hundred Feet Below the Surface.

Honolulu, March 29—A small fleet of naval tugs, wrecking vessels of private salvage companies and barges, is particiapating in today's attempt to raise the sunken submarine F-4. All hope of saving lives of the twenty-one men aboard has been abandoned.

Naval experts refuse to predict how long it will take to raise the vessel, even far enough to recover the bodies. They declare untold engineering obstacles must be overcome Some doubted if the vessel can be hoisted before tomorrow.

Certainty that the submarine has been located just outside the harbor more than 300 feet below the surface, after almost three days had been spent on a false clue, spurred the rescue corps to renewed effort.

Passage of four days since the F-4 made her death plunge precludes hope of rescuing any survivors.

Parts of the submarine's conning tower and super-structure, raised by grappling hooks late yesterday afternoon, made it definitely known that the vessel had really been located.

GIRL SENT BY MAIL.

Six-Year-Old Child Travels From Florida to Virginia by Parcel Post.

Savannah, Ga., March 29.—Wearing a placard, on which was her name and destination and 15 cents in parcel post stamps, 6-year-old Edna Neff passed through the terminal station here last night on her way from Pensacola, Fla., to Christiansburg, Va., where her father is awaiting her. Little Edna weighs just under the 50 pounds limit.

Edna lived in Pensacola with her mother, who had not lived with her husband, the child's father, for some time. The probation officer in Pensacola offered to send Edna back to Virginia, and the mother offered no objection. Theo fficer had no funds to pay the fare of a grown-up traveling companion for the child, so he did the next best thing, which was to intrust her to Uncle Sam and the railroad officials.

HORRORS OF PERMSYL.

All Civilians Would Have Been Dead If Fighting Kept Up Much Longer

Basle, Switzerland, March 29.—Vienna papers just received here give graphic details of the last days of Permysl received from Capt. Lehmann and Lieut. Stanger, the only two aviators who escaped from the fortress. Lieut. Stanger says:

"During the last few days all the horses were slaughtered for food. The entire supply of oats wes ground into flour. The civilian population was starving, 200 of the the people of the town were dying from exhaustion daily."

CARDINALS GIVEN TALLY.

Altrock Presents Locals With Loss Run in the Ninth Inning.

About 600 Alexandrians fans saw the Cardinal Athletic Club vainly endeavor to stop the "rookies" of the Washington Nationals from running away with the baseball game, the grand stand and the spectators Saturday afternoon. The visitors led by "Nick" Altrock showed too much class for the locals and the latter would have gone scoreless if Altrock had not pitched the last inning and given it to them, "because they wouldn't have been satisfied if we didn't let them have at least one run." The final score was 9 to 1 in favor of the Washingtonians.

Up to the time Altrock entered the box the Alexandrians had reached first base only four times, a scratch single off Engel by Owens, two passes by Clarke, and a bingle off Gallia summing up the total damage. All three of the young pitchers showed excellent form, especially Gallia, who had almost perfect control and fanned six of the seven men who faced him in two innings. Thompson broke the spell with a single to center, but previous to this Gallia had pitched seventeen consecutive strikes, after throwing ing two balls to Merchant, the first batter to face him. Williams caught the entire game.

"Eddie" Thompson twirled for the Cardinals and, although touched up pretty lively, went the whole route. Fourteen hits were made off his delivery, but nearly a third of them of them were of the scratch variety. Four runs were gathered by the Plebes at the outset by mixing four singles with two walks and a passed ball. They followed these with a mark in each inning up to the sixth.

"Nick" Altrock kept the crowd laughing from start to finish, and in the ninth inning, when he took the slab, there was a continuos roar. Allenworth was an easy infield out and when Altrock had struck out Devers he called in the outfield and took Seiglie out of the game. His experiment was unsuccessful, however, as Merchant hit to center for three bases and Bauer brought him in with a two-bagger.

After the game the Alexandrians headed by Mayor Fisher, gave the ball players a banquet.

CARDINALS WIN A GAME.

Trim Columbia Athletic Team of Washington 6 to 5.

The Columbia Athletic Baseball team visited Alexandria yesterday and were defeated by the Cardinals in a well played game by the score: Cardinals, 6; Columbias, 5.

Walter Allensworth was the first choice for pitching for the home lads, and performed well until relieved by Jack Risdon who twirled in midseason form and had the Washingtonians at his mercy at all times. Melviu Jones, behind the bat, caught a pretty game. All the members of the Cardinals were given a chance to play in the game. "Big Ham" Nugent in center field, played his position to perfection.

A. H. S. LOSES TO ST. ALBANS.

The Alexandria High School baseball team, the third game of its season, was defeated 11 to 1 at Washington Saturday by the strong St. Albans team. The game was called in the seventh. The next opponent of the local High School, team will, accordiug to the schedule published Saturday in the Gazette, be Western, who they play today at the Baseball Park. Haynes pitched for the High School, with Schafer catching, while Holmes nad March were the Cathedral's twirlers.

CARD OF THANKS.

The Cardinal Athletic Club wishes to express its most sincere thanks to those who helped to make their baseball game on Saturday such an unqualified success. First of all the thanks of the club are due to Manager Clark Griffith for his interest in the well fare of the Cardinals in sending us a team, then to Mayor Fisher for his kindly interest, to the newspapers for their publicity, to the merchants who advertised in our program and to all who in any way helped us in our enterprise, we are very grateful.

U. S. BONDS WILL BE TAXED IN STATE

Important Ruling of State Auditor Which May Be Tested.

WILL COLLECT $39,000

State Official Says He is Ready to Take Issue to Supreme Court of the United States.

Richmond, March 29.—Orders have been issued by State Auditor Moore which means in effect that United States Government bonds loaned to banks in Virginia are to be taxed just as other intangible property, and the Auditor when advised that the banks and the owners of the bonds might resist payment of the tax, declared that he was prepared to take the matter to the Supreme Court if necessary.

United States Government bonds have never been taxed in Virginia, and the ruling of the State Auditor, whic his based upon the tax revision laws recently enacted by the Legislature, has disconcerted many bank officers and bondholders.

It is estimated that about $6,000,000 in United States bonds is held as loans by the banks in Virginia. On this the State Auditor proposes to levy a tax of sixty-five cents on the $100, the total tax accruing from the bonds thus being $39,000.

Auditor Moore points out the provisions of the revisory tax board statute which gives the board the power to summon witnesses and examine them under oath regarding the amounts and depositories of bonds and other intangibles held.

He declares that the revisory tax board would summon not only the men who hold bonds, but also bank officers, and those who refuse to testify will be held "in contempt of court" and treated accordingly.

It came to the attention of examiners of records sometime ago that holders of United States bonds were loaning them to banks and receiving 2 per cent interest from the banks in addition to the regular 2 per cent. interest paid by the Government.

A man who had $1,000 in cash for instance, could only receive the 3 per cent. interest paid by the banks. (Three per cent. is the interest paid by the clearing house banks of Richmond.) The interest would amount to $30 a year, but depositors have to pay a State tax of 20 cents on the $100 on all money in bank. The tax on $1,000 is $2 a year, and this would reduce the income of the depositor in question from $30 to $28.

Examiners of records have discovered, it is said, a tendency on the part of some to put their money into 2 per cent. Government bonds, which are non-taxable. The bonds would then be loaned to banks at 2 per cent a year. In $1,000 so invested the income would be $40 a year, and until the Legislature passed the law which the State Auditor now invokes, no taxes against the depositor could be assessed.

The issue was forced by William H. Sands, of this city, one of the most active examiners of records in the State.

SHOT IN HOME BY INTRUDER.

Farmer, Mortally Wounded, Rushed to Richmond Hospital.

Richmond, March 29.—Carter J. Daniel, a farmer, forty-two years old, of near Dundas, Va., is a patient at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, in this city, suffering from a gunshot wound in the abdomen which, it is feared, will prove fatal.

Daniel refused to tell how he was shot.

More light was thrown on the shooting when Commonwealth's Attorney Folkes received a letter from Commonwealth's Attorney Buford, of Brunswick, saying that Daniel had been shot by Minor Hardy on March 25th and asking that his ante-mortem statement be taken. No details were given.

The shooting is said to have occurred in Daniel's home and was the result of trouble over Mrs. Daniel, his wife.

Daniel, it is alleged, finding Hardy at his home about 11 o'clock Thursday morning, threatened to slash him with a razor, but the weapon was taken from him by other persons in the house before he could do any damage. Hardy then opened fire upon him with a revolver, shooting twice. Only one bullet took effect and that lodged in Daniel's abdomen. Hardy was placed under arrest.

LONDON MAY BAN KISSING

Medical Men Tell of a Germ Spread Abroad by Osculation

London, March 29.—An unkissed London in the near future is probable unless Cupid's new enemy here technically described by medical men as diplococcus can be conquered. Also, because of some cases of cerebro spinal meningitis, practitioners are advising against kissing.

Diplococcus is an ally of influenza and is causing much sore throat affection. Cupid has been turning the thoughts of so many young men in khaki to love that the diplococcus commonly referred to as the kissing germ has been having a fine time.

CHARGES AGAINST JUDGE CHICHESTER

Delegate Powell Says He Will Press All the Allegations

STATEMENT IS READY

Will Outline What He Expects to Prove of Alleged Corrupt Political Conditions in County

Richmond March 29—Delegate S. P. Powell, of Spotsylvania, who startled the House of Delegates shortly before adjournment by preferring charges against Judge R. H. L. Chichester, of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, said last night that he had almost the solid indorsement of his district in the stand he had taken as to alleged corrupt political conditions in the county.

Mr. Powell said that he had received many letters commending him for paving the way to a thorough investigation, and he appeared to be confident that the outcome would show that he had ample ground for his charges.

The Fredericksburg delegate has not been informed, he said, as to when the first meeting of the special committee would be held to begin the investigation, but he thought that it would probably be some time in May, and that the first meeting would be held in Fredericksburg.

Mr. Powell said that, for the present at least, he would confine himself to the charges uttered in the House of Delegates, though the committee has power to broaden the investigation so as to include the whole judicial district. At the opening session he will deliver a statement defining and outlining the charges he expects to prove, and will lead the fight against Judge Chichester.

In a general way Mr. Powell charged that Judge Chichester had used his position to appoint men to office in violation of the State Constitution and stated specifically that a deputy treasurer had been appointed by Judge Chichester to the electorial board, an office which he is legally not entitled to hold. Judge Chichester replied that he did not know at the time of the appointment that the man was a deputy treasurer, and that if questions had arisen as to his eligibility he would not have appointed him. Friends of Judge Chichester said in addition that the practice was common enough, and that it was a question whether the appointment of office holders to the electorial board was in violation of the Constitution.

EXCITEMENT IN COUNTY

Negro Purse-Snatcher Narrowly Escapes Violence at Hands of Infuriated People.

A number of people of Alexandria county arose in their wrath early last Saturday night when a negro snatched a handbag from the hand of Mrs. Charles H. Shelton at Braddock station, Alexandria county, a short distance from this city. It was one of a series of bold acts on the part of negroes during the past week or two, and a repetition exasperated nearby residents to such an extent that they were determined t ocapture him dead or alive.

Mrs. Shelton and Mrs. Shackelford, a neighbor, were standing at Braddock station waiting to board a car bound to this city when they were approached by the negro, who grabbed Mrs. Shelton's bag and ran in the direction of R. D. Woolf's dairy farm, a short distance to the west. The screams of the women attracted the attention of George Reynold's whose home is near the station, and Mr. Reynolds quickly spread the alarm by telephone. Horace Woolf, a young son of the dairyman, and Phillip Jackson, a colored farm hand, the former armed with a shotgun, arrived at the roadside just as the negro dashed by. When called upon to halt, the footpad increased his speed and Mr. Woolf fired twice at him, but without result. In the meantime Wallace Lindsey, Earl and Frank Trimyer, George Duncan, Julian Y. Williams and others responded to Mr. Reynolds' telephone calls and the fugitive was soon surrounded. He proved to be Albert Harris, colored, 40 years old. His captors carried a rope and the suggestion made that it might be made to fit his neck. Harris led his captors to a point on the bank of Hooff's Run, nearby, where they recovered the handbag containing $12. Harris was tied with the rope and brought to this city on a trolley car. He was locked up at police headquarters, where he denied having committed the robbery, but said that he had witnessed it and had seen the robber when he threw the handbag away. Mrs. Shelton, however, fully identified Harris immediately after his capture. He was turned over to the Alexandria authorities yesterday afternoon.

DEATH OF COUNCILMAN

Robert L. Monroe Passes Away Suddenly at His Home This Morning.

Robert L. Monroe, a member of the City Council of Alexandria, and a prominent business man, died suddenly at his residence, 510 north Washington street, at 6 o'clock this morning. Mr. Monroe had only been ill a few days and his death was entirely unexpected. He was taken sick at his store late Friday afternoon and was removed to his house where it was found that he was suffering with congestion of the kidneys. The immediate cause of his death was heart disease.

The deceased was the son of the late John H. and Elizabeth Harrison Monroe, and was born in this city May 11, 1862, and was nearing his 53rd year. He was a member of the wholesale grocery firm of Garrett and Monroe. He was elected to the City Council from the Third ward November 27th, 1906, to succeed Gardner L. Boothe, and took an active interest in municipal affairs. The deceased was a member of the committee on light and police. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Anna Virginia Heyman, daughter of the late Professor Heyman, a sister, Mrs Robert L. Garrett and a brother, Samuel L. Monroe. His funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon.

DANGEROUS PASTIME.

Boys Amusing Themselves Jumping on Movnig Trains at and Near Union Depot.

Crews operating trains passing from the Potomac yards to the Union passenger station and Seminary station are kept busy in attempts to prevent boys from boarding moving freight trains. The youths loiter in the vicinity of Potomac yards, from which place trains move slowly and getting on cars they ride as far south as Seminary station, at which place they board incoming trains.

Several youngsters were captured last week by railroad men and their parents apprized of the dangerous sport of their boys. Under present laws parents are erquired to control children and keep them from annoying others. Should they fail to do so, the young offenders can be turned over to the State Board of Charities and Corrections. The above should prove a warning to parents, some of whom may not know that their boys are running the risk of being killed or crippled by participating in such dangerous sport. A boy, it will be remembered, was literally cut in two while attempting to board a moving train on the overhead bridge at the head of King street some time ago. The unfortunate youth was from Washington.

DEATH FROM APOPLEXY.

Mrs. Warner Suddenly Expires After Returning From Funeral of Husband.

Returning late yesterday afternoon from the funeral of her husband, Armistead Warner, a well-known farmer of Fairfax county, who resided at Linconia, six miles below Alexandria, Mrs. Isabelle Warner complained of feeling ill. A few moments later she fell in a faint and died of apoplexy, the same disease that had caused the death of her husband three days previous. Mr. Warner was 68 years old and had been in good health up to the day of his death. In the morning he said that he was sick and a doctor was summoned, but before his arrival Mr. Warner had expired.

VIRGINIA CONGRESSMEN.

The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot of yesterday contained a page article on the work of Virginia Congressmen, giving a picture of each. The following was given in connection with the labors of Hon. C. C. Carlin, Representative of the Alexandria District:

"Charles C. Carlin of Alexandria, is now entering upon his fifth term as representative of the Eighth Virginia district. He is a member of the judiciary committee, one of the leading twelve, and his work in the Sixty-third Congress was distinguished by brilliant defense of the anti-trust bill on the floor of the house, as well as by a part in the drafting of that measure and also of the Federal Trade Commission bill, the latter of which was framed by a subcommittee of which Mr. Carlin was chairman:

"The brunt of the debate on the anti-trust bill, from the administration's viewpoint, was borne by Mr. Carlin. His main speech in its advocacy was generally admitted to be among the best individual efforts in the history of a Congress remarkable in this respect. Though the anti-trust bill carried the name of the (then) chairman of the judiciary committee Judge Clayton of Alabama, the member who won the most reputation among his colleagues from the measure was Mr. Carlin. He was also energetic in behalf of the administration policies, including the ship purchase bill.

"Coming from the district which immediately adjoins the District of Columbia, Congressman Carlin is interested in a great many matters of mutual concern to the people of Washington and the people of the adjacent portion of the Old Dominion. The Eighth district representative has devoted much effort to the furtherance of bills for the improvement of the avenues of communication between the national capital and the Mother State. He is a persevering advocate of the construction of a bridge across the Potomac which shall not only be of service to the public, but shall also be of becoming architectural dignity and beauty and worthy to be the beginning of the destined "Appian Way" from the capital to historic Mount Vernon by way of almost equally historice Arlington.

"Congressman Carlin has taken special interest in the legislation for a $750,000 chapel at Arlington in connection with the Lincoln Memorial, in securing appropriations to the extent of $137,000 for military roads and federal experimental roads in the Eighth district. He worked hard for the bill which allows Virginians to be educated in the District of Columbia public schools, and also for the change in the federal statutes which makes dairy products from any other States encounter the same regulations in the District of Columbia as those coming from Virginia or Maryland. Inasmuch as the War Claims bill carried $114,000 of items for the Eighth district, Mr. Carlin was active in its adoption by the house.

"Because he is the most easily accessible Virginia member, geographically, to the people of his district when Congress is in session, Representative Carlin probably has more of his time taken up by constituents in person than anyone else in the delegation, and he is also sought with frequency by Washingtonians. These local drafts upon his time and attention render it the more creditable that he should have won a place among the leaders in the general legislative work of the administration in the Sixty-third Congress."

CONFEDERATE [illegible] JUNE.

The [illegible] days of June, 1915, will be among the most memorable in the history of Richmond. Fifty years after the death of a nation, a great memory will be dedicated; the cornerstone will be laid for the monument to one of its greatest leaders; survivors of the armies which fought for its preservation will reassemble in the city they left fifty years ago to the mercy of flames and invading forces.

The Confederate reunion of 1915 will be one of the greatest in the history of the organization of War Between the States veterans. It is hoped to have the largest attendance in years, despite the dwindling number of veterans, and to have in addition a great military display.

All department, division and brigade commander, their adjutants-general and all other officials of the United Confederate Veterans will participate in the reunion and every State commander will lead his division in the great parade.

General Bennett H. Young, of Lousville, Ky., is commander-in-Chief; Major-General William E. Mickle, of New Orleans, La., is adjutant-general and chief of staff, and C. Irvane Walker, of Summerville, S. C., is honorary commander in chief.

The reunion will continue three days June 1, 2, and 3.

CARS NOT HEATED.

(Communicated.)

By a recent decison of the court of appeals of Virginia several hundred persons were added to the population of Alexandria. Is it the wish of the electric railway to reduce this figure by the pneumonia route? March, as we all know, is a treacherous month and carries away each year a large toll of both young and old. Saturday last was a raw, cold day. I left Washington on the 11:15 p. m. train and was compelled to spend thirty-five minutes in a car absolutely without heat. Would it not be a good idea if our Chamber of Commerce would take this subject up along with complaints about the schedule, &c.?

Beer a Food Beverage

Beer is a good beverage by reason of its cereal ingredients. It gets its tonic properties from the hops.

Physicians recognize the fact that it is a food as well as a tonic and that is the reason why they frequently prescribe it. Beer contains nearly as much nourishment as milk and being predigested, it is readily assimilated.

But you want the right beer, one that is palatable and has an agreeable flavor.

GOMPERS OPPOSES STRIKE.

Trying to Restore Peace in Chicago Building Trades.

Chicago, March 29.—Samuel P. Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Thomas Williams, head of the building trades department of the organization, attended a conference of union labor leaders here last week in an effort to bring peace between warring factions and prevent a threatened tie up of building operations in Chicago May 1, when a number of agreements with contractors expire.

The threatened tie-up would affect more than 100,000 workmen in 34 trades. The dispute grew out of the opposition of a faction led by Albert Alex, business agent of the Laborers' Union, to the uniform arbitration agreement proposed by the Chicago Building Trades Council. Members of the minority faction in the council declare they have 10 trades with them in their opposition to the uniform arbitration plan and have demanded that the charter of the Chicago Building Trades Council be annulled and a new organization formed.

President Gompers and Thomas Williams listened to statements from both sides in the controversy in executive session. Then President Gompers addressed the conference urging peace, and at his suggestion a committee of 10, five from each side, was named in an effort to settle the dispute.

PRIEST KILLED BY BROTHER.

Search of Earthquake Ruins And Letter Divulge Tragedy.

Rome, March 29.—Recovery by the police of a famous art treasure stolen from the parish church of Massa D'Albe, after it was destroyed by the earthquake in January, has disclosed also that the parish priest was murdered by his brother, according to advices from Avezzano.

When the ruins of the church were explored after the disaster, it was found that a noted Byzantine Triptych, executed on ivory, used as an altar piece, as well as other religious objects, were missing. Their value was fixed at a large sum.

The police now claim to have learned that when part of the church was wrecked the priest was buried with the art treasures in a section of the building which remained standing because its massive walls were part of an old fort built on solid rock.

The priest was slain, the authorities assert, by his brother, who suspected the ecclesiastic of being friendly with his wife. This man, it is asserted, found the clergyman lying helpless under the ruins and killed him, with the assistance of friends, who then removed the art objects. An intercepted letter led to the discovery of the crime, and all those suspected of being involved

IGNORE WARNING

London, March 29.—Despite Lord Kitchener's warning and the agreements between the government and the trade unions that strikes would cease, stoppages of work still continue. Though the number of men involved thus far is small, fears are expressed that the disaffection may spread and the government be driven to adopt the drastic measures which have been threatened in order to increase industrial production.

At Birkenhead Friday afternoon the men loading three steamers quit work. Their ground was that they are not paid until the following week for work done Friday and Saturday.

On the Liverpool side of the Mersey a large number of dockers are threatening to strike for a similar reason and to lay off for an entire week. At the Dowlais (Wales) Steel works government orders for materials needed in France and Belgium are being delayed by strike of a comparatively small number of men, which has dislocated work in the establishment.

The Clyde engineers are much dissatified with the recent government arbitration award and intend to ask for a further increase in pay.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective.

They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
